

Most supporters of the North Country Trail become involved because of their love of nature, or interest in hiking and backpacking, or their desire to dig in the dirt and get their hands dirty building part of a 4,600 mile National Scenic Trail. At times though we need to make our voices heard in Washington so that our representatives and governmental partners are aware that we are concerned about issues like opening up the trail to mountain bikers in the Allegheny National Forest, the Land and Water Conservation Fund, the National Transportation bill, and HR 799, the North Country National Scenic Trail Route Adjustment Act to name a few.

The information and links below are intended to simplify the communication process between you, the North Country Trail supporter and advocate, and the people who need to hear from us about what's important about the NCT.
